Past Week Accomplishments

- Had a meeting with client's graduate student, Josh, on Friday, April 11th. In this meeting, we discussed our results obtained from last week to use the data and plot a heat distribution graph.
- Started preparing for our final presentation and did a practice run on April 14th.

Plan for Coming Week

- Use MATLAB to work on analyzing the images taken and plotting the heat distribution according to the pixels color or if in grayscale intensity.
- Update our project plan, design document and presentation to have ourselves ready for the deliverables and final presentation during Dead Week.

Pending Issues

Individual Contributions

- Yishu and Sean put up the presentation skeleton and worked on it on Sunday, April 13th together.
